

SCHOOL FOR CHILDREN OF RUSSIAN HONORARY CONSULATE BEGINS

(Verona, 28 September 2015). School for children of the Honorary Consulate of the Russian Federation begins. Founded in 2011 and addressed to children aged from 3 to 13 years, the School begins its 5th year on Saturday 3 October 2015. The aim is to promote and to develop children's passion for Russian culture through the study of language, music, art, history and geography. The lessons, held by Russian mother tongue teachers graduated in pedagogy, take place every Saturday morning at "Massalongo" primary school (via dell'Artigliere, 14 - Verona), from 9.30 to 11.30 for school-age children, from 9.30 to 11.00 for the younger ones. Lessons are followed by an optional chess course (11.40-12.40).

Students and parents who are interested may come to free trial lessons at School on Saturday 3 October and on Saturday 10 October. Reservations by mail info@conoscereeurasia.it. The price for a school year is 420 Euro for children aged 6-13 years, 320 Euro for the younger ones.
