

RUSSIA HOUSE IN DAVOS

22–26 January 2018, Davos, Switzerland

As part of the upcoming World Economic Forum, the Roscongress Foundation will continue its Russia House project. For the third year in a row, Russia House will serve as the official Russian residence at the event, a platform for promoting Russian initiatives among key representatives of the international business community and high-ranking officials who will come together, as per tradition, in Davos (Switzerland) this coming January.

Russia House is a multi-format space that has the necessary status and technical capabilities for its partners to conduct all manner of public and private business events, including panel sessions, business lunches, dinners, meetings and presentations, as well as take part in the sports programme. In addition, Russia House features comfortable conference rooms for business meetings.

In 2018, Russia House will be located at: 68 and 72, Promenade, Davos – in the immediate vicinity of the Congress Centre, but outside the restricted access zone, which will help attract more foreign officials and business representatives to the Russian cultural and discussion platform.
